Programs

Everyone had a great time at the Howdy Party on Sunday, July 26. We had 114 students sign in and receive their Howdy Bag gifts, which contained items donated from TAMU organizations and local College Station businesses. Our guest speaker, Alyssa Michalke, first female Cadet Colonel of the Corps of Cadets in the 139-year history of Texas A&M, gave a fantastic speech and great advice to our Aggie students. Several Fish Camp counselors helped get the crowd revved up in the Aggie spirit by leading yells, as well as the Aggie War Hymn and Spirit of Aggieland songs. We handed out a lot of student and parent door prizes to get everyone ready to start school on August 31. Special thanks go out to our gracious host, First Baptist Church, for allowing us to host our party in their wonderful facility. And as always, last but not least, many thanks to our amazing Aggie Mom board, who planned and hosted this great party! Whoop!

Tips for Moving in your Aggie

The official residence hall move-in day is Sunday, August 23rd. Move-in day can be stressful and hectic but here are some tips for you to make transitioning your Aggie a little bit easier!

1. Avoid hot times of the day if you can! Also, some people forget about moving in later in the day around dinner time or after. Moving in later in the day will help avoid the morning/afternoon rush of people and will be less hot!
2. Pack snacks in a cooler if you don't mind! Moving in can be very exhausting so it's a great idea to keep Gatorade and water, sandwiches, and other snacks ready to eat. This will also help with time so that you won't have to go eat right when you get there, especially if you get there when it's pretty busy.
3. Let the residence hall workers help you! People are hesitant to have someone else move their belongings but these people volunteered to do this and are so happy to assist you! Take advantage of the kind Aggie atmosphere!
4. Bring a small dolly or something with wheels! Bringing something with wheels like a dolly will help so much during move in. It can make bringing heavy things like microwaves and mini-fridges a lot easier.
5. Have your Aggie make a plan with their roommate/suitemates! Nothing is more hectic than having four students move in at once into a small area. Ask your Aggie to plan with their roommates/suitemates so everyone is not moving in at once! This will make things so much easier and keep everyone's stuff separate. Then, after the first students move in, they can help each other out!
